

LOUISIANA CREDIT UNION LEAGUE

2017 Scholarship Opportunity

ABOUT THE SOUTHEAST CUNA MANAGEMENT SCHOOL

The Louisiana Credit Union League annually awards partial scholarships to the Southeast CUNA Management School in Athens, Georgia; this year's program is being held June 9–16, 2017. Since 1971, the Southeast CUNA Management School has equipped graduates with the skills and knowledge to meet the leadership challenges that arise in the credit union industry.

To view the complete program brochure, please visit www.srcus.org

The mission of the Southeast CUNA Management School is to provide students the opportunity to develop their leadership capabilities so that they can contribute to the success of their credit unions. SRCUS is committed to creating the best student experience possible through the use of a well-rounded curriculum and experiential opportunities for professional and personal growth. Students leave the school with meaningful, long-lasting relationships with classmates that strengthen the cooperative nature of the credit union movement.

The Southeast CUNA Management School is held at the Georgia Center, the University of Georgia's Conference Center and Hotel in Athens, Georgia. The school utilizes faculty from the University's Terry College of Business and experts from the credit union industry. The curriculum is designed to be delivered over a three year period with students in residence for course work each summer for eight days. In between the summers, students apply the knowledge gained from the school to projects that require strategic analysis of their credit unions and research of relevant issues facing the credit union industry.

SCHOLARSHIPS

The Southeast Regional Credit Union Schools (SRCUS) Scholarship, awarded on the basis of future potential and involvement in the credit union movement, exists to encourage credit union personnel to become more informed, competent employees through attendance at the Southeast CUNA Management School. Recipients of this annual scholarship to the Southeast CUNA Management School in Athens, Georgia receive funding to be used to help defray the cost of tuition for the current year. Recipients must reapply each year. Funding for this scholarship program is provided by the Southeast Regional Credit Union Schools and the Louisiana Credit Union League.
